

'BOOL' TOWSE ELECTED A. S. U. H. LEADER

No Majority Obtained in Three Offices in Friday Election

490 VOTES CAST

To Hold Extra Session
Tomorrow for 3
Posts

Displaying unexpected strength, Edward "Bool" Towse, varsity football captain, earned the right to affix the title, "president, A. S. U. H.," to his name, when he defeated Percy Smith for the leadership of the student body of the University last Friday. Towse polled 347 votes out of a total of 490 cast, leaving Smith with 141. The newly elected president is a member of the junior class and has been active in University life since his matriculation as a freshman.

NO MAJORITY
Friday's election was marked by a number of no majority contests, which incidentally makes it necessary to have a special election. This will be held tomorrow. The two candidates with the largest number of votes in each office secured during the regular election will run again. This eliminates one from each of the three offices in which no candidate was able to gain a majority.

Miss Gertrude Kadota and Miss Dorothy Anderson will enter the special contest for the first vice-presidency, Miss Ethel Franson being eliminated. Miss Kadota obtained 228 votes, Miss Anderson 165 and Miss Franson 97. All of the candidates are members of the third year class.

ELIMINATED
Ah Ho Chun, who was automatically elected editor of Ka Palapala by virtue of the fact that he was the only candidate up for the position after the withdrawal of Shigeo Yoshida, was taken out of the race for the office of second vice-president in Friday's election. His other rivals, John Devereux and Philip Westgate, both secured a higher number of votes than he was able to get. Westgate received 213 votes, Devereux 151 and Chun 122.

Miss Moku Gittel and Miss Ann Moore will vie for honors in the contests for the secretaryship of the A. S. U. H. The former garnered 158 votes, the latter 195. Miss Lillian Abe, the third candidate, secured 132 votes.

CHUN AND LEE
Of the two remaining offices, Kan Mun "Kanky" Chun was elected treasurer over Earl Nishimura by 258 to 228. This was the closely contested office. Kam Tai Lee won the editorship without any opposition.

The committee charged with the task of counting the ballots consisted of Percy Lydgate, Hung Wai Ching, Gladys Pearce, John Okamoto and Kong Hui Lee.

"Yellow Jacket" Cast May Go to Mainland

Some of the Chinese of Honolulu are fostering plans for a proposed trip of the cast of "The Yellow Jacket" to the mainland.

The play is of old Chinese customs acted in an old Chinese way, but presented in English. On account of the unique and striking atmosphere of this play that the Chinese students of the University have dramatized, it should go well on the mainland.

It is planned that "The Yellow Jacket" will be given on the Pacific Coast first and then perhaps taken as far east as Chicago.

Commerce Club

The Commerce Club will hold its annual picnic at Waimanalo on Sunday, May 13, according to Edward Keyes, president.

The committees appointed to plan for the day include: transportation, Francis Sato, C. T. Lum, Edward Keyes; refreshment, T. Daishi, Percy Lydgate, H. Hamamoto, Solomon Tseu, and M. Okamoto.

Every member is urged to attend the picnic as everyone will be assessed 50 cents whether he goes or not. More detailed announcement will be made next week after the various committees have completed their plans.

To Form New Club

An International Relations Club is being formed under the auspices of the department of history and political science at the University. It has been announced. The purpose of the club is to promote interest in foreign affairs and to furnish a forum for the discussion of problems of international relations. In order to assist in this work, the Carnegie Foundation for World Peace is presenting a large number of books relating to this subject to any students' organization interested in international relations.

Similar clubs have been formed at a majority of the more important universities on the mainland. Hawaii will have the distinction of being the first territorial university to have such a club. All those who are interested in an organization of this kind may leave their names with any of the instructors in the history and political science department.

Berndt Contest Tomorrow Nite

Eight Out for Honors
in Annual Prize
Test

President David L. Crawford will preside at the Berndt Extemporaneous contest tomorrow evening at Mission Memorial hall at 7:30 p. m. when eight students will speak on different aspects of the Nicaraguan question. Lawrence Judd, Judge William H. Heen, and Wade Warren Thayer will act as judges of the evening.

Each speaker will give five minutes of constructive speech, and after that will have three minutes to answer any question asked by another contestant. Contestants will be judged upon the manner of presentation, of subject matter, knowledge of the subject, clearness of thinking, and ability to think quickly.

The eight students in the finals are Miss Gladys Li, Quan Tun Ching, Leong Fong, Joseph Gerdes, Kameju Hayakawa, Kam Tai Lee, Jack Wakayama, and Shigeo Yoshida. All of them are experienced speakers.

THE QUESTIONS
Each contestant will draw one of the eight subjects the morning of the contest. The subjects are: Should the United States immediately shift its support from Diaz to Sacasa? Does the Monroe Doctrine obligate the United States to interfere in Nicaragua? Does the resulting stability and prosperity justify the use of the United States marines in Nicaragua? To what extent is American business enterprise responsible for intervention in Nicaragua? Should America heed foreign opposition to our Nicaraguan policy? Is the American position in Nicaragua endangered by American party politics? Should the League of Nations assume the problem of Nicaraguan stabilization? Each contestant can speak for or against the American policy in Nicaragua.

GLADYS LI

Beck Will Fill Vacancy To Be Left By Prof. Baker

N. B. Beck of the University of Montana faculty has been appointed by the Board of Regents to the University of Hawaii next year to teach public speaking, argumentation and journalism, filling the vacancy to be left by Mr. John Milton Baker, assistant professor of English at the University, who is leaving this year to attend Harvard to work for his doctor's degree.

Mr. Beck is a graduate of the University of Washington, class of '24 and received his master's degree the following year there. Mr. Beck has done graduate work during the summer at Stanford two years ago, and will go this summer to Wisconsin for his Ph. D. in speech as he is specializing in public speaking and argumentation.

JAPAN TOUR PLANS MADE; READS CABLE

Goodwill Speakers to Debate Doshisha
University

TO LEAVE MAY 15

Will Meet Oldest U
in the Pacific in Manila

Final arrangements for the University of Hawaii Pan-Pacific debating team's tour of Japan have been completed, according to a cablegram just received by Walter Mihata, captain of the team. The cablegram from Paul Rusch, secretary of the All Japanese University committee, who has been handling the arrangements for the trip in Japan, stated that everything is in readiness for the oratorical contests and debate in the Island Empire.

The plans as now made call for oratorical contests in Tokyo and Osaka, and a debate with student-faculty of Doshisha University at Kyoto. The contest in Tokyo will be on the general topic of American-Japanese relations. Three men will be picked at large from the 17 universities in the Tokyo district, and these will meet the local trio. This will probably be the biggest single event on the schedule for the University of Hawaii debating team.

TO MEET FORMER LOCAL BOYS
At Kyoto the Varsity team will be pitted against two graduates from this University and one other former local boy. The team which will open (Continued on Page 4)

Chop Sui Dinner Planned in Honor of Senior Women

Is Last Social to be Sponsored This Year
by Adelphai

Invitations have been given out to the senior women at the University for the Adelphai chop sui dinner to be given in their honor at the Honolulu Chop Sui house next Tuesday evening, May 8, at six o'clock. An early date was decided upon in order to avoid a conflict between other club activities and final examinations.

Plans for a program to be given during the dinner have been worked out by Miss Lillian Abe, general chairman, and Miss Winnifred Webster, chairman of the program committee. The decorations, in charge of Miss Alice Bell, will carry out the color scheme of green and white.

The senior party will be the last social to be given this year by the Adelphai club and will conclude club activities for this college term, and those in charge plan a surprise for the guests. All University women who are planning to attend the party are asked to sign up on the bulletin board outside the women's rest room in Hawaii hall.

Orientation Course Will Be Offered in September

A course is to be offered in the College of Arts and Sciences this fall which will be known as Freshman Orientation. It will deal with the evolution of man, and the influence and growth of man's social environment, being the start of an entirely new idea at the University. The purpose of the course is to give those who take it the philosophical and fundamental principles of every field of college and university work, so as to make the students better able to choose a particular field in which to major. The particular importance of each field will not be featured as much as will be the relative importance of one field to all the others.

AN ELECTIVE COURSE
The course will be a three hour one; two lectures a week and an hour's collateral reading with special lecturers taking charge of the class from time to time. The course will be open to the students of the College of Arts and Sciences and also to those of the College of Applied Science who may choose it. It will not be a requirement but an elective. In the College of Arts and Sciences it will fulfill the science requirement. The instructors who will have charge will be Professors Stanley D. Porteus and Frederic Wood-Jones and the text will be the "Matrix of the Mind," written by themselves.

OBJECTIVES
The idea is one growing out of the demand for such a course and has been successfully introduced at Stanford, Dartmouth, Columbia, University of Minnesota, and Antioch, as well as numerous other colleges and universities. At Antioch, for example, which is recognized as having a wider range of objectives than any other orientation course offered in the country, President Morgan sets forth six aims: to enable the student to understand the college curriculum, to give a survey of the significant fields of knowledge, to enable the student to understand and make better adjustments to college life, to enable the student to understand present-day problems, to train the student in thinking and how to study, and, by orienting the student with respect to a career, to give him an idea of what contribution he may expect to receive from the various courses offered at the college.

As may be seen on the roster listed above, two members of the Fighting Deans earned places, and for fear that you may need glasses their names are, again, "Kaiser" Tanaka and Eddie Fernandez, veteran outfielder and horsehide slugger. Eddie leads the league in homers after kissing two against the fence in the last free-for-all with the Standard Oilers, besides lacing out a tripler in the same game. ## University Y To Include Normal

At the recent meeting of the Advisory Board of the University Y. M. C. A., of which Stanley Livingston is the chairman, a commission from the general territorial Y. M. C. A. Board, which asked the University Y to include student Y movement at the Territorial Normal Training School was adopted.

Heretofore, the Normal School had a student Y. M. C. A. activities among themselves, and had little connection with the other Y. M. C. A. There was no secretary in that school to enter actively into Christian work. Asilomar delegations were sent by the Normal School, separately from the University, at its own expense.

According to Lowell Mell, University Y secretary, this new plan will promote better relationship between the two higher educational institutions of the Territory—the University and the Territorial Normal Training School. It will coordinate the student Christian movement and thereby derive greater advantages than before. Mr. Mell was pleased with this far-sighted move by the Advisory Board, although his work will be greatly augmented.

PROF. BAKER QUITS U. H. THIS YEAR

Will Enter Harvard University for Graduate Work

HOPES TO RETURN

Ka Leo Advisor for 2
Years; Debate
Coach

Mr. John Milton Baker, assistant professor of English and coach of the debating team at the University, plans to leave this year for Harvard to continue his graduate work for his doctor's degree. He intends to take a course in English under Professor George L. Kittridge and work in dramatic philology under Professor Tetlock with whom Mr. Carl G. Stroven and Dr. Laura Schwartz studied. Mr. N. B. Beck, who has been appointed to fill the vacancy, is a brother member of Beta Theta Pi.

ACTIVE IN DRAMATICS
While on the University faculty, Mr. Baker has been teaching public speaking, argumentation, oral English and journalism. He has also been active in dramatics having acted as dramatic coach for the Dramatic Club which so successfully presented "The Admirable Crichton" last year. Mr. Baker is now dramatic coach at Punahou during Miss Una Appleby's leave of absence and the good work done by the cast in "The Thirteenth Chair" was due to his untiring efforts. Mrs. Baker is connected with the junior academy at Punahou, teaching social science and mathematics.

KA LEO ADVISOR
Mr. Baker now has two classes in journalism, the beginners' and the advanced. He has acted as advisor for Ka Leo since his appointment here two years ago.

Last Monthly Inspection on Tomorrow A. M.

Tomorrow morning the last inspection of the cadets in the University regiment of the R. O. T. C. will be held; the scores from this will count 25 percent of the year's inter-company competition standing.

Precision drill will also be counted towards the standing of the various companies in the regiment. Last semester the "Famous Howitzer Company" lead all the other companies in the monthly competitions. But this semester the company seems to have fallen down to fourth or fifth place.

After the inspection and test in training the companies will have time to practice for the coming tournament on May 11.

ADDRESS TO BE MADE BY F. ATHERTON

Debate With Bates To Lead Activities For Commencement

Outdoor Exercises

Rev. Akana To Make
Baccalaureate
Speech

With only six more weeks of school left for the college term this year, preparations for activities for commencement week have already begun. Frank C. Atherton, general manager of Castle & Cooke, Ltd., will deliver the commencement address at the outdoor exercises on Monday afternoon, June 4, speaking on the subject of International Relations.

Mr. Atherton has an understanding of the situation, having returned recently from a trip to Europe and a visit to the League of Nations. He spoke at the regular luncheon of the Pan-Pacific sponsored by the Cosmopolitan Club at the Army and Navy "Y" and also at the "Y" conference, held at Waialua.

Mr. Atherton, who comes from one of the oldest kamaaina families in Hawaii, is a Honolulu "boy." He attended Punahou Academy and upon completion of the course there, he went to the mainland, but is now making his home in Honolulu.

Besides the regular commencement exercises, the awards will be made. The A. S. U. H. executive committee has appointed a special committee consisting of Miss Dorothy Anderson, Richard "Red" Weight, Earl Nishimura and Kam Tai Lee, to select the two all-around seniors from the two colleges. A combination of high scholarship and an active participation of student affairs will be considered as the basis for these honors. Last year, Edwin Fernandez of the College of Arts and Sciences, and Archie Kaaua of the College of Applied Science, were given the awards.

Activities for commencement week will be started by the debate to be held between Bates College and the University of Hawaii, on Friday evening, June 1, at Mission Memorial hall. Baccalaureate services will be held on Sunday evening, June 3, at Kawaiahao church with Rev. Akako Akana, pastor of the church, and one of the members on the Board of Regents of the University, delivering the address. The Kawaiahao choir, under the direction of Miss Lydia Kawaiinui, and the University chorus, directed by Professor Paul Kirkpatrick, will furnish the music for the evening.

Miss Cadwell to Hold Interviews for Play Course

Miss Floralyn Cadwell, English instructor and dramatic coach at the University will be in her office next week, May 7-11, from 9:30-11:30 to conduct personal interviews with students who are planning to take up her course in play production next year. Applicants who cannot see Miss Cadwell during the above mentioned hours are asked to put a note in her box arranging their time.

Applicants should bring with them for the interview a statement as to their college, year, previous experience, and whether they have studied dramatics in school or have done work in plays outside of school. Miss Cadwell would also like to know what the applicant's purpose is in taking this course, whether for personal development, and appreciation of the theatre and plays, or with a view to teaching.

In this course, one-act plays will be studied and student directors will be chosen from the class and from those who have had experience. All students in the class will have an opportunity to have personal direction under Miss Cadwell in directing, taking leading and minor parts, and make-up. The course will also include studies in stage equipment, and positions of stage manager and electrician. With such a varied and widely different number of subjects to be taught in this course, Miss Cadwell hopes not only students with dramatic talent will apply, but also those who are interested in back stage work.

Berndt Contest

Tomorrow evening at Mission Memorial hall, the sixth annual Berndt contest in public speaking will be staged.

A cash prize of $100 will be awarded the winner. The award is offered annually by Mr. Berndt who has taken a great interest in forensics at the University as well as at the Normal School.

The contest this year will be interesting and the prize will be keenly contested. The eight speakers who have been chosen for the finals tomorrow evening have been selected from twenty-four undergraduates. The eight contestants, one of whom is a co-ed, are all winners in the preliminaries, and have had much experience on the platform.

The subject for the contest is the American policy in Nicaragua, and is one which is being widely discussed. The contestants will speak extemporaneously and will make impromptu answers to queries submitted. The contest will reveal the speakers' grasp of the subject, ability to think quickly, and fluency.

Greater interest in the contest has been aroused this year because two of the speakers will be chosen to represent the University in a debate with Bates College. There will be no admission charges. Students and friends of the University are cordially invited.

Who Should Go to College?

The pressure of the number of students seeking admission to colleges in the United States and the consequent increase in expenditure and the inability to meet the situation adequately, have brought about the question, Who should go to college?

The question has been answered in many different ways, but the difficulty has not been solved. Certain standards or criteria, which every student wishing to enter college must measure up to, have been set up. But as yet no adequate tests have been devised to measure the necessary qualities in the students.

In a course in education at the University, certain ideal requirements for college entrance were set up. The class agreed that a student must possess sufficient intelligence to do college work, character traits such as willingness and desire to do hard work, honesty, cooperation, and perseverance, an interest in things intellectual, and an ideal of service to the public.

In the light of these requirements, how many of us can claim the right to go to college?

Yellow Jacket Cast Is Feted

About 90 persons attended the chop sui dinner and dance given for the cast of "The Yellow Jacket" by the Chinese Students' Alliance last Saturday evening.

The nine-course dinner was served at Sun Yun Wo (New Men Harmonious) chop sui house, with Kam Tai Lee as toastmaster for the evening. After the dinner was over, Leong Fong presented Mrs. Edna B. Lawson, director of the play, and Mrs. Joseph Farrington each with a parcel on behalf of the students' alliance. When these parcels were opened, they were found to contain gorgeous Mandarin coats which the ladies put on immediately. Both recipients of the gifts expressed their appreciation and happiness for having had the privilege of working with the cast of "The Yellow Jacket," and avowing that from now on they "could be Chinese" with their Mandarin coats.

Riley H. Allen, editor of the Star Bulletin, told the cast that what little assistance he was able to give, he gave gladly and declared that he enjoyed every bit of his connection with the production of the play.

Professor S. C. Lee of the University expressed his appreciation to the different people who contributed toward the success of the production. Among them he mentioned Riley Allen, Mrs. Lawson, Mrs. Joe Farrington, Professor J. M. Baker of the University and the ushers.

After Henry Young sang in Chinese accompanied by the same orchestra that played at the performances of "The Yellow Jacket," a flashlight picture of the guests was taken by Yew Char.

At the conclusion of the dinner and program, everyone motored out to the Oahu Country Club where cards and dancing were enjoyed.

S. S. S. Dance Bids Sent Out Last Week

Bids for the S. S. S. dance were sent out last week to nearly two hundred people. The novelty of the invitations promises that their miners' dance this year will be as successful as their bowery dance last year. The

J. S. A. Gives Good Program

"East Meets West" Wins Approbation of Packed House

Gorgeous and picturesque costumes gave a typical Japanese air to the American Japanese friendship program, offered by the Japanese Students' Association last Friday night at the Mission Memorial hall with the hope of bringing better understanding between the peoples of America and Japan. The mission was well accomplished with overwhelming success.

HALL FILLED

The spacious Mission Memorial hall was filled with a cosmopolitan audience of more than 700 before the opening of the program at 7:30 o'clock. A large number of friends were either turned away or left to stand during the entire program. In spite of this, the audience enjoyed the program.

"East Meets West," a little musical playlet enacted by Miss Lillian Noda, Miss Dorothy Johnson, and Miss Hannah Goo received the greatest applause from the audience. This little act was cleverly arranged and directed by Mrs. Florence Bocco Johnson, noted musical instructor of Honolulu. The three little girls dressed in their national costumes, exhibited unusual musical ability. Their recitations were especially amusing and praiseworthy.

FLOWERS OF NIPPON

"Flowers of Nippon," a vivid fantasia adapted from Virginia Olcott's play picturing how the sixteen-petaled Chrysanthemum was chosen for the Japanese Imperial Crest was well played by the cast. The characters wore brilliant kimono to produce the real Japanese atmosphere. This little production, directed by Miss Ruth Komuro, sophomore at the University, brought much applause from the audience and served to fulfill the desire of many who were deeply interested in things Japanese.

"The Moon over the Ruined Castle" and "The Beauty of the Nature" in Japanese were well received. The dancers, all from the Kawaiahao Seminary, were accompanied by Miss Helen Matsunami of Normal school.

THE CLIMAX

The popular Japanese samurai play "Shonanko," written by Kikuchi Ochi, was the climax of the evening's program and was enacted entirely by the Japanese students of the University. It was coached by Mr. Onouye, well known actor. This difficult play of the fourteenth century was well presented. It portrays the first cardinal virtue of samurai, loyalty to the emperor. The scene was the farewell gathering of the loyalists in a temple, with the imperial messenger and the heroine, Owen Konishi, sophomore, who took the leading role, portrayed the most difficult part so well that he surprised many older people. The characterizations of Miss Gertrude Kadota, Earle Okamura and Wallace Otoguro deserve high comment. Although the language used was in Japanese of the

Executive Group of Adelphai Club Discuss Nominees

Women to Vote Today on Question of New Name

Plans and possible members to be suggested to the nominating committee as candidates for next year's officers were discussed by the Adelphai executive committee at an informal supper-meeting held last Wednesday at the Cafeteria.

In keeping with the program of the Adelphai club in sponsoring a social every month, a chop sui dinner will be given in honor of the senior women next Tuesday evening, May 8, at the Honolulu Chop Sui house. After dinner, several groups who wish to go will attend either the Princess or Hawaii Theatre. All University women who plan to attend this party, are asked to read and sign the notice on the bulletin board outside the women's rest room in Hawaii hall.

The executive committee also decided that a meeting of the Adelphai club be held this morning to discuss and vote on whether the present name of the club Adelphai, should be changed to the Associated Women Students (A. W. S.) or whether the old name should be retained. It was thought that A. W. S. would be more appropriate as this organization includes all the women students on the campus and would convey the meaning of the club, whereas Adelphai does not suggest an organization to which all the women belong.

Members of the executive committee who attended the meeting last Wednesday were Mrs. Dora Lewis, Miss Betty Steere, president, Miss Moku Gittel, Miss Gertrude Kadota, Miss Wong, Miss Lellani Rohrig, Miss Winifred Webster, Miss Edith Greig, and Miss Lillian Abe.

fourteenth century, the audience was able to follow the play through the synopsis written on the program.

Other numbers on the program were a steel guitar and guitar duet by B. Iwanaga and Yutaka Nishimura, a clarinet trio by Miss Okimi Tsuda, Yoichi Hanaoka and Issac Iwanaga, accompanied by Miss A. Joekel, and delightful vocal solos by Akira Takel.

THE CAST

The cast of "Flowers of Nippon" included, Morning glory, Clara Kurano; Iris, Shizuko Suzuki; Lady Yellow, Miss Helen Honda; Lady White, Miss Ethel Yamamoto; Cherry Blossom, Miss Ruth Komuro; Saki, Ralph Shimokawa; Yamato, Lincoln Kanai.

Those who were in charge of the evening's program were, Earl Nishimura, general chairman; Makoto Nakaga, program; M. Adachi and Owen Konishi, drama; Ruth Komuro, fantasy; Helen Honda, dance and song; Isaac Iwanaga, music; Yoshino Nagai, reception; Mildred Nerio and Asako Kutsunai, ushers; Richard Kaneko, decoration, and Horace Kawamura, publicity.

Aggie Leaders Work on Luau

Tickets Selling Fast, According to Ashton

The present outlook for the Aggie luau, set for Saturday evening, May 12, indicates that it will be the greatest and most successful social gathering of the Aggie Club this year according to Courtland Ashton, president of the club. Ticket sale is going fast and a great part of the 150 tickets has been sold, he said.

William Chalmers, who is in charge of the luau, said there will be plenty of eats for all the 150 students, members, and their friends. In the meantime Phil Peck is busy arranging for a snappy program which is to be presented under his personal management. Three or four bouts of boxing will be staged with Cruze and Whittle definitely lined up. Octavio, the little but dangerous Filipino, offers to box any Engineer of 120-pound weight. To heighten the thrill for the evening James Shin, 175 pound, and Teramoto, 120 pound, challenge any Engineer club member of the same weight to wrestle.

Immediately after the luau and before the smoker, trophies for the barnyard golf and the checkers tournament will be awarded the winners. Two matches of fencing, one between two girls and the other two boys, are also included in the program.

Leaders of "Y" Clubs To Hold Picnic Sat.

The leaders of the Pioneer and Friendly Indian Clubs of the Nuuanu Y. M. C. A. will give a moonlight picnic at the Y. W. C. A. beach house on Saturday, May 5, at 6:30 p. m.

Edward Kushi, a junior in the University, is general chairman and he promises a good program with lots of "kaukau." Kushi has chosen a reliable program committee, which is composed of Tsbaki, stunts; Masao Yamada and Ruth Komuro, games; and Richard Kaneko, music. The refreshment committee is composed of George Fuji, Edwin Kuniyuki and Y. Seto. The menu sheet of the evening consists of hot cocoa, salad, sandwiches, and biscuits.

In order to defray the expenses, each leader is asked to contribute the meager sum of twenty-five cents. This will cover the privilege of a couple for the entire evening. The program consists of games, music by the "Junk Quartet," stunts by various clubs, singing by the deputation team and swimming.

All the leaders and their lady friends are urged to be down at the beach by 6:30 p. m. As this is the last social of the year all leaders are expected to be present. Those who intend to go are asked to see Kushi or "Chicken" Yamada.

And here comes the story of the dumb frosh who thought that "No Man's Land" was the Women's gymnasium.

Gov. Farrington Will Preside at U-Bates Debate

Bradford H. Robbins, Alumnus, in Charge of Entertainment

Governor Wallace R. Farrington will preside at the Varsity-Bates college debate on Friday evening, June 1, at the Mission Memorial Hall. The Bates debaters are known in Europe and on the mainland as the country's best.

The Bates team will consist of Mervin L. Ames, John T. Davis and Charles H. Guptill. Prof. Brooks Quinby, coach, will accompany them. They are from Bates College, Lewiston, Maine.

The team will arrive here from San Francisco on May 30, leaving there on board the Sonoma, May 24. After a series of debates in Honolulu they will sail for New Zealand on June 6 on the Niagara.

The question of debate will be "Resolved: That this house deplores the policy of protecting capital invested in foreign countries by force of arms without a formal declaration of war." The sides have not been chosen yet.

Mitsuyuki Kido has been picked for captain of the Varsity team because he was captain of the first varsity team which debated against Oregon and he was not eligible to compete in the Berndt contest in which he took first prize last year.

The other two members of the team will be picked from among the eight students competing in the Berndt contest. These eight had been picked from 24 illustrious debaters.

Governor Farrington accepted the invitation extended to him in a letter dated April 26 by Prof. John M. Baker to preside at the debate that evening.

The Governor said: "I shall be very glad to accept your invitation to preside at the debate on Friday evening, June 1st. Please keep me in touch with your plans."

Bradford H. Robbins, a Bates college alumnus is in charge of the committee for the entertainment of the men. The college has offered to cooperate in any way it can with this of Ka Leo as Kam Tai Lee, who is now managing editor of the weekly, will continue the policy started by Stowell Wright and followed by Mitsuyuki Kido in making Ka Leo a newsy paper. Mr. Lee is well acquainted with the work and I hope that arrangements may be made so that the editorship will be put on a financial status," Mr. Baker said when asked as to the future status of the editor of Ka Leo.

MEMBER OF UNION

Mr. Baker has been an active member of Hawaii Union, the honorary forensic organization on the campus. He was presented with the Union key by the members of the teams that debated Oregon last fall. He is now coaching the Pan-Pacific debating team and the Berndt Oratorical candidates.

Although Mr. Baker has been in Honolulu for only two years, he and Mrs. Baker regret that they must leave the islands now, and plan and hope to return two years hence after Mr. Baker has completed his graduate work. Mr. Baker received his B. A. from Knox College, his M. A. from Harvard and Lit. B. from the Pulitzer School of Journalism. His plans for the summer are indefinite.

Magarian's Stars Beat All-Saints in Thrilling Game

Coach Myrick Reviews Contest; Profs Improve

By LOCKWOOD MYRICK, Coach.

In this mundane world stars usually outshine saints, and last Tuesday's game between Magarian's All-Stars and the Purity-Inn All-Saints was no exception. The game was too one-sided to be interesting; the Saints did the best they could, but their best was so poor that Myrick himself might have been allowed to play. In six innings the All-Stars put across 16 runs on 14 hits, 6 passes, 12 stolen bases, and two errors; all except two of the runs were as clean as the Saints themselves. Bailey, Neuffer, Magarian, Armstrong, and Miyake got two hits apiece, and so would have Pake Duke, had not the umpire robbed him of a perfectly good triple. Neuffer and Armstrong stole so many bases that even their team-mates were pleased when a plain-clothes man appeared.

FORBES SUB FOR KIRKPATRICK

The All-Stars looked just as good on the field. Magarian deserved a rest from holding the Phi Beta Kappas to 0 earned runs; so Pake Duke went to the pitcher's mound. Though a bit wild, he pitched such good ball that his outfielders did not have a single chance. Forbes did so well subbing for Kirkpatrick at first that Kirk will have to hustle to regain his position. Armstrong and Neuffer played a prettier game than ever, and are proving to be the best keystone combination in the University.

SAME OLD JOE

Though Saints want no praise, one cannot but admit that some of the All-Saints played less poorly than others. Cushnie, Herbert, and Lydgate at bat, and Whitman and Penhallow on base might almost have been mistaken for All-Stars. Cushnie did well at short, and so did Christie at third. The latter pitched the last two innings, and while his control was not what one would expect in a saint, he showed that with a little practice he should be dangerous for the Engineers, Locker Room boys, and others new at the game. Joe Gerdes has been playing all season in the Commercial League, and very properly was placed eighth in the batting order; out of three times up, he fanned once very neatly and twice popped as neatly to the infield. Behind the bat, however, he caught a beautiful game, dropping but one high foul and two third strikes, and allowing but 12 stolen bases. His best play of all came when Forbes was at bat. Joe protested that a certain ball should have been called a strike. "Now you know," said Forbes, "that ball was over my neck." "I know," Joe came back, "there is nothing over your neck."

Joe was put out in the last inning quite as much as before. The bases were loaded, two men out, and only five runs needed to tie the score. Joe had visions of a home run. At this point, Christie, who was on first, realizing that the team's weakest hitter was up, must have tried to pull off a triple steal. It fell through, however, and he was caught flat-footed off first for the third out. Though he had saved Jack the ignominy of striking out in a pinch, Joe's language was such as to make it doubtful whether he had any right to be on the All-Saint lineup.

PROCEEDS OF GAME

Proceeds of the game will go for presenting autographed copies of Magarian's "How to Pitch" to Herbert and Christie, and Myrick's "ABC of Baseball" to each of the All-Saints. For while saintliness is an admirable quality, to be effective it must be supplemented by knowledge, as knowledge must be by practical experience. When the All-Saints show by practice games with the cement mixers and Phi Beta Kappas that they have thoroughly digested these two authoritative works, a return game will be considered. Certainly if by that time the All-Saints have lost any of the humility so essential to their character, the All-Stars can be counted on to restore it to them in ample measure.

I am a little bashful boy,
I like to play and sing.
I always try to talk a lot,
But never say a thing.

2 Deans Make All-Star Nine

need be said, for the peppy Rainbow backstop made some fans think that he won more ball games than did Dean Ishii himself.

Joe Gerdes was the only Dean who received Honorable Mention, and Jumping Joe got the position at right field because of his smart headwork, snappy fielding, and clever base running. Others, who in our estimation might have received honorable mention include Dean Ishii, pitcher, and Wakatake, who played a bang-up game all season with the exception of the very last contest. Wakatake has worlds of speed which enables him to cover a great deal of territory in his center field garden. He probably covered his position better than Willie Costa, Liberty House flash, who received recognition because of greater consistency at the plate. Our other candidate, Ishii, had no peer when feeling right. Dean has wonderful control and a slow ball that makes the worst slugger look as foolish as a rusty gate reaching for the old pill. Few batters got onto his portside offerings for any length of time, and but for terribly erratic support might have pitched the University to another pennant.

Baseball lettermen include the following eleven players as well as Manager Bud Towse, new A. S. U. H. president, and incumbent of signal other positions: Dean Ishii, Tanaka, Matsusaka, Okumoto, L. Holt, Narita, Eddie Fernandez, Wakatake, Gerdes, Ogawa, and Acting Captain Fat Nakamura.

Through Ka Leo, the Rainbow team wishes to thank coach "Chuck" Horton for his untiring effort, and take this opportunity of showing their appreciation to him.

Frosh Forum Will Hold Last Meeting of Semester, Tues.

After a successful year of forensic activities, the Frosh Forensic Forum will hold its final meeting at the Honolulu Theological Seminary next Tuesday evening. Dr. Thomas Bailey, advisor of the Forum, has done much to help the freshmen to become interested in student affairs at the University.

Fifteen members have been in the Forum since its organization in October. The greater number of the fifteen have participated in University debate tryouts as well as in the Berndt preliminaries.

Three of the members represented the freshman class in the interclass debates winning the championship of the year. One of the eight students who will compete for the Berndt prize of $100 tomorrow evening at the Mission Memorial Hall is a member of the Forum.

According to Jack Wakayama, president of the Forum, there will be a similar organization next year among the sophomores, with Dr. Bailey as advisor.

The Forum has been holding regular meetings at the Honolulu Theological Seminary twice a month at which time vital questions of the

Prof. Wrenshall Returns From Trip Round the World Pneumonia Prevents Him From Teaching in Manila

Professor Richard Wrenshall, head of the chemistry department, had a very interesting story when interviewed by the Ka Leo reporter. He had just completed around-the-world trip and had carried out one of his cherished desires to see the world, and he is mighty glad of it, in spite of the fact that his plan to study in Manila has been upset by an attack of pneumonia.

Last October, Dr. Wrenshall left Honolulu on one of the N.Y.K. boats, intending to change to one of the Canadian Pacific steamers in Shanghai, and proceed by it to Manila where he planned to do some work in the University of the Philippines, and to study the work which is being done in the Cullion Leper Settlement on chaulmoogra oil derivatives for the treatment of leprosy.

GETS PNEUMONIA
"Japan is cold in the late fall, and while hunting for a trunk which had been put ashore by mistake in Yokohama, I caught a cold which developed into pneumonia by the time I arrived in Shanghai," Dr. Wrenshall said. He was laid up for fifteen days in a hospital.

By the time the got to Manila, the semester of the University of Philippines was too far advanced for him to do the work he intended to. He spent four days at the Bureau of Science investigating leprosy work. The investigators there were very optimistic about the oil treatment, which is essentially the same as the processes developed in the University of Hawaii some ten years ago by Dr. A. L. Dean, according to Professor Wrenshall. It is claimed that in about 30 per cent of the cases, treatment leads to the arrest of the disease and the ultimate parole of the patient, he stated.

MAKES ROUND-THE-WORLD TRIP
"As my plans for the winter were already upset by the attack of pneumonia, I thought it was a good opportunity to carry out the desire I had felt for a long time to make a trip around the world; so I engaged passage from Manila to Marseilles on a Dollar boat," he continued. "At Singapore I took a side trip to Johore and saw one of the famous White Elephants parked back of the Sultan's palace. It reminded me of the 1924 Studebaker Coach I used to have, so substantial, powerful, and deliberate in its movements! At Colombo, Ceylon, I saw a monkey in the zoo which could scratch matches and light a cigarette. Sometimes he forgot to blow out the match in time and burned his fingers. This reminded me of some students I have had in Chemistry 101 in past years."

In Egypt Professor Wrenshall had his first ride on a camel which he hopes to be his last.
In speaking of Italy he said, "I was preyed upon by the hungry fleas and hotel proprietors. I haven't decided yet which was the more voracious."
Professor Wrenshall was in a minor train wreck in France, but nobody was seriously hurt. From France he went to England and thence to America and Hawaii after visiting many friends and relatives in the eastern states.

IS STILL A BACHELOR
"Since returning to Honolulu, several people have asked me if I got married while away. I guess they think that since one confirmed bachelor on the faculty stepped off this year, the rest of us who are enjoying blessed singleness will have to follow suit. Anyway, the answer is 'No' in my case", said Professor Wrenshall.
"Let me say that of all the places I have seen in this trip around the world Hawaii is the only place in which I would care to live permanently. California is the next best, but it isn't even a close second in my estimation. I'm very happy to be back here again and do not plan to leave the Territory again for a long time", he concluded.

Y., of a paper on Internal Medicine dealing particularly with diet which appears in the Archives of Internal Medicine for January, 1928. The article is copyrighted by the American Medical Association and a copy of it has just been received by Dr. Arthur L. Andrews from the authors. # Berndt Contest Tomorrow Night the Chinese Students' Alliance interscholastic debating team. During the academic year 1925-26, Miss Li won third prize in the Chinese Students' Alliance oratorical contest. That same year she won first prize for an essay entered in the National Chemistry essay contest for Hawaii, Porto Rico, and Alaska. She was also one of the seven students picked at Punahou in the special development class who were leaders in public speaking.

Miss Li is not only a good speaker but a writer, actress and active student in University affairs. Her short story called "Submission of Rose Moy" won first prize of $25 in the recent contest held under the auspices of Hawaii Quill. In the Chinese Students' Alliance play "Yellow Jacket" she took an important role. Her school career is a remarkable one.

Q. L. CHING
Ching will appear for the third time in the annual Berndt contest. He is a member of Hawaii Union. He has a pleasing voice and easy manner of presenting his subject matter. He is president of the University Y. M. C. A.

LEONG FONG
Fong is a freshman but is a member of Hawaii Union and a good speaker and knows how to deliver his goods. Rarely does a freshman have the honor of being chosen as member of Hawaii Union. Fong was one of the three men who represented the University in the debate against the University of Oregon team which passed through Honolulu last year.

Hayakawa is a member of Hawaii Union and is going for the Berndt prize for the second time.

KAM TAI LEE
Lee is managing editor of Ka Leo and the editor of the student publication next year. He is well known for his oratorical ability. He won the Hiyama oratorical contest a few years ago. In the interclass debates he appeared twice, last year and this year. Lee is also the editor of Ka Palapala, the year book of the University. He was one of the first prize winners in the annual prohibition oratorical contest when he was attending high school.

JOE GERDES
Gerdes, soldier and orator, is one of the few students who can speak freely before any audience with very little preparation beforehand. He represented the junior class team in the interclass debate. He is a member of Hawaii Union.

JACK WAKAYAMA
Wakayama is a freshman with an enviable forensic record. He captained three debate teams during his high school days. This year he led the freshman debaters to interclass championship. He is also president of the Frosh Forensic Forum.

SHIGEO YOSHIDA
Yoshida is a member of Hawaii Union. Last year he was one of the three on the freshman debate team which defeated every trio that debated against them. He debated against the University of Oregon team last year. Yoshida is managing editor of Ka Palapala this year.

Six of the eight students are members of Hawaii Union.

Two of the eight will be picked to represent the University in the coming debate against Bates college.

A CORRECTION
The Aggie luau tickets cost $1.25. Through some error, Ka Leo was led to believe that the tickets were being sold at $2.

Informal Social Held By Members of U Cosmo Club Enjoyable Evening of Games and Dancing Passed

A very enjoyable evening was spent by the members of the Cosmopolitan Club on Wednesday, April 25, from 7 p. m. to 10:30 p. m. at the Pan-Pacific research institute in Manoa. The boys and girls with their guests met for an informal social.

For the first hour, games were played by students dressed in old clothes. The costumes worn by some of the students were novel and interesting. Beatrice Lee was quite stunning in a close-fitting holoku which reached below her ankles. Juliette Oliveira also harked back to the days of tight bodices and flowing skirts. La Verne Clarke made an adorable child with her long curls and short dress. Ventnor Williams as a boy of five or thereabouts proved a charming playmate for La Verne. Old clothes of all sorts had been dragged up from the rag bag for the evening.

Students played games of various kinds. "Spin the pan," "fruit basket," "drop the handkerchief," and other youthful games were thoroughly enjoyed by all. The Messrs. Carl Farden, Moses Inaina, Bernard Farden, and Arthur Zane entertained with some charming Hawaiian numbers. Gladys Li sang a delightful humorous song.

Dancing followed in the program with Miss Maria Wong at the piano and Mr. Hogarth Freeland and Mr. Thatcher as accompanists. Novel dancing games added to the enjoyment of the evening. Refreshments in the form of sandwiches and punch were served later in the evening. La Verne Clarke and Johnny Kai entertained with a charming dance. Pillani Yates and Herbert Kai put on a fascinating exhibition of the Apache dance. An exhibition of the hula by Emma Blake and Hogarth Freeland was thoroughly enjoyed. At 10:30 the last of the childish games was ended and once again the old clothes were stored away with the youthful games and pleasures of the evening.

More than half the men students at the University of Nevada earn the greater part of their college expenses by outside work. The positions the men get are varied; they range from janitorial work to selling insurance.

pose Walter Mihata, Stowell Wright, and Ah Ho Chun will be composed of Shunzo Sakamaki and his brother George, and Raymond Oshimo. The prohibition question has been chosen as the topic for the debate, with the local trio upholding the affirmative.

Besides the regular scheduled debates and oratorical contests in Japan, the "good will" team will address the student bodies of most of the universities in Japan, and will give informal talks before the various Pan-Pacific and Rotary clubs and other similar civic organizations. They expect to visit most of the important cities in Japan before going on to China, where a debate with a picked team from Shanghai and Canton has been arranged. In China the team plans to visit, besides Shanghai and Canton, the cities of Nanking, and Hongkong.

OLDEST U ON SCHEDULE
From China the team will go to Manila. A debate with Santos Tomas university of Manila on the question of "Asia for the Asiatics" has been planned. This university is the oldest in the Pacific, while the University of Hawaii is the youngest, so this meeting will have an element of additional interest.

The members of the University of Hawaii team are busy preparing for their coming trip. They have been working on their orations and gathering material for their various debates. Before they leave, they are to meet a picked local team in a debate on the prohibition question, and preparations for this debate on May 11, have added to their tasks.

Tickets for the team, taking them as far as Manila, have already been secured with money raised through the Cosmopolitan club and Mr. Alexander Hume Ford. Money for the remainder of the expenses, including transportation back from Manila, must be raised before the team sails on May 15. It is to help defray these expenses that the debate on May 11 has been arranged. Tickets for this debate are now being

Ka Palapala Copies Go to Press on Tuesday Afternoon

With the last copy material gone to press on Tuesday afternoon, Kam Tai Lee, editor of Ka Palapala, University yearbook, is perhaps one of happiest individuals on the campus. Within a week all copy matter will be returned with first proofs which have to be gone over painstakingly, after which the "dummy" or model is made and sent back to the printer with the final approval of the editor.

It is expected that the Star Bulletin will take from three to four weeks in which to print and bind 750 copies of Ka Palapala. This means that, at the earliest, the University annual is scheduled to be delivered on the third or last week of May, which is about two weeks before commencement day. An innovation as far as the Ka Palapala is concerned is the scheme of opening pages for the class sections. In the past the general theme has been either the cocoanut tree or the fruit itself. In this year's number, candles were used to denote the different classes. Harry Schultheis, University photographer was successful in taking 4 soft-toned photos which present a striking effect.

For the seniors, 4 candles mounted on a like number of brass candle sticks and a cap and gown were used as "subjects" for the picture, while 3 candles, a photo of a girl and a book made up the junior cut. The sophomore and freshmen cuts contained two and one candles respectively, with books, writing material and knick-knacks that usually form part of a student's possessions.

The R. O. T. C. section is also well illustrated in the year-book. Each company appears in a halftone cut, in addition to pictures of the commissioned officers, instructors, the colors, the band, the rifle team and sponsors, and a snapshot page of R. O. T. C. activities.
